Many valuable agency partners lack the scale or technology for NDC integration. Airlines need a simple way to provide direct access to their products and servicing—without losing offer control or adding integration complexity.

How Air Agencies solves it

Modern agency access

Enable travel agencies to access airline offers through NDC connectivity or an intuitive, dedicated agency portal.

End-to-end booking servicing

Support the complete booking lifecycle—from shopping and booking to changes, payments and post-sales servicing.

Airline-controlled distribution

Keep control over products, pricing and merchandising while extending the airline’s reach through agency partners.

Guided agent experience

Help agents complete complex processes through intuitive workflows, contextual information and optional AI assistance.

Built on an established foundation

Air Agencies is a planned evolution of the Airplane Solution’s Air Customer Care platform already supporting airline contact-centre operations, extending its workflows and servicing capabilities to the travel agency ecosystem.

What Air Agencies will enable

- ✓ Direct agency access without NDC integration

✓ Airline control over offers and commercial terms

✓ End-to-end booking and servicing autonomy

✓ Faster partner onboarding with less distribution complexity
